

People & Stories, the White Plains Public Library Oral History Project

Interested in working with other White Plains residents to help preserve their stories and make sure future generations can learn about the past?
Come learn how to be an interviewer helping to record oral histories about White Plains!

A training session for those interested in learning to be interviewers will be held on Saturday, April 18, from 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at the White Plains Public Library.

People & Stories, the White Plains Public Library Oral History Project, seeks to facilitate deep conversations between community members and preserve previously undocumented history in a sharable, engaging way.

This project is open to people of all ages who have worked or lived in White Plains and no previous experience with interviewing or historical research is required. Contact Ben Himmelfarb, Librarian for White Plains History, with any questions at 914-422-6980 or bhimmelfarb@whiteplainslibrary.org.
